

CRITICISM OF BOARD OF HEALTH

Relative to Handling of Scarlet
Fever Cases Answered by
Doctor Brunelle

There has been considerable criticism of the board of health's handling of scarlet fever cases. It is an undisputed fact that doctors diagnose the same case differently, at times, and this happened in scarlet fever cases. In part answer to the criticism to the effect that children went out of school by the school physician being returned to school by the board of health and that quarantine regulations were not being properly enforced, Dr. Brunelle, this morning, said:

"In regard to the quarantine laws concerning cases of suspected scarlet fever there is a great deal of misunderstanding. As a matter of fairness to all concerned the board of health has taken this position. For instance, after being vaccinated, certain children went back to attend school. The school physician, having his suspicions aroused, reports the case to the board of health, as possibly scarlet fever. The attending physician, on the other hand, who has been attending the case from day to day, reports back to the board of health that he is positive the case is not one of scarlet fever.

"In a case of this kind the board of health feels that the school physician should be commended for his vigilance and that his position should meet with the utmost respect. The attending physician, however, is in a better position to know what he is dealing with and the board does not feel like going over his head by placing a scarlet fever card on his patient's door."

"In all such cases the children have remained from school, and at home, the same as under quarantine, except that no card was placed on the door of the attending physician's case."

ARREST THE RECKLESS DRIVERS

If the drivers of autos and other vehicles when crossing streets or turning corners would exercise due caution as dictated by common sense, there would not be so many collisions as we have nowadays. The traffic rules now in force and bearing upon the mode of turning a corner or crossing a street are plain enough, and if followed would in most cases ensure safety; but they are seldom obeyed unless under the personal direction of police officers. There are street corners where the turn cannot be made with absolute safety except by stopping and looking both ways to see if the road is clear. How many drivers do this even at any of the so called "blind corners?" It would seem to be the imperative duty of the police to pay more attention to reckless drivers of autos and other vehicles on the public streets.

IN PROBATE COURT CASE OF W. J. DUDLEY

Contest Cases Heard by
Judge Lawton

MANY WILLS WERE ADMITTED TO PROBATE

Mrs. Lot R. Winters Petitioner For
Separate Maintenance on the Ground
of Neglect and Ill Treatment

Mrs. Lot R. Winters of this city has petitioned the court for separate support on the grounds that her husband did not supply a proper home for her, and also that he abused and maltreated her.

The case was heard by Judge Lawton in the probate court session for contested cases. In the course of her testimony Mrs. Winters said her husband did not properly support her and that often while under the influence of liquor he maltreated her. Her testimony was in part corroborated by a police officer who on one occasion was called to the house to quiet the defendant who was in an intoxicated condition.

Mr. Winters' testimony was a complete denial of the testimony of his wife and other witnesses.

The session for uncontested cases was presided over by Judge McIntire and the following cases were disposed of:

Administrations granted: Francis McCluskey, Lowell; Frank Berard, Lowell; Frederick G. Cuff; Alfred Langlois, Westford; Ellen P. Worcester, Westford; Annie C. Curry, Lowell; Frank Carolan, alias Carolin, Lowell.

TURKS EXPECTED TO YIELD

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 21.—Increasing optimism is displayed in telegrams received here from Constantinople regarding the possibility of the acceptance of the advice of the powers by the Turkish government. It is regarded here as practically certain that peace will be concluded between the Balkan allies and Turkey without a resumption of hostilities.

Even should the Ottoman government's reply be not altogether satisfactory it is thought that the European powers, having taken hold of the situation, will not allow the belligerents to resume warlike operations.

SMALLPOX FOUND

LOCAL PHYSICIANS DISCOVERED CASE
IN WIGGINVILLE DISTRICT

Resimon De Gagne Was Removed to Hospital—Home Quarantined—
First Case Since July 19

Scarlet fever had to take a back seat at the board of health office today when Dr. George E. Caisse reported a case of smallpox in the Wigginville district. Dr. E. G. Livingston, the local smallpox expert, examined the case and verified Dr. Caisse's diagnosis.

The patient, Resimon DeGagne was removed to the smallpox hospital. The case is one of discrete smallpox and while this is not the most violent form of the disease, it was stated by the doctors and Agent Bates of the board of health, that DeGagne is a pretty sick man.

There is no doubt in the minds of the doctors and board of health members but what DeGagne contracted the disease in the city of Montreal where he spent a week or two, returning to this city January 10th. He is a carpenter by trade but has not worked for more than a week. He was taken sick four days ago. He is 37 years old and has a wife and six children. The names and ages of the children are as follows: Angelina, 10 years; Helen, 8; Abelle, 6; Armand, 4; Mary Louise, 2, and Amabelle, 3 months. The house has been quarantined and according to the story obtained by the doctors and Agent Bates there has been little, if any chance for exposure outside of the immediate family. The DeGagne family live at 210 Woburn street.

First Case Since July 19, 1911
The last case of smallpox reported in this city was on July 19 of last year. The board of health had just victim was Joseph Caenette and he had two cases to contend with in 1912. The was discharged from the smallpox hospital June 5. The next case was that

TO ARBITRATE RAILROAD STRIKE

Aroostook County Senators and Reps. Adopted Resolution and Wired it to Pres. Todd

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 21.—The serial situation in Aroostook county that the strike on the Bangor & Aroostook railroad should be speedily settled by arbitration or otherwise.

Rep. George Irving of Caribou, received a long letter from President E. L. Cleveland of the Aroostook Potato Shippers Association in which he claimed it is the opinion in his country that President Todd made a mistake in refusing to arbitrate.

Strike Causes Advance on Potatoes.

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—An advance of ten cents a bag on potatoes was made today by wholesalers after the result of threatened shortage by reason of the strike on the Bangor & Aroostook railroad. No potato cars have arrived here since Saturday and while a few cars are reported on the way, it is expected that shipments will decline materially later in the week unless the strike is settled.

The abundant crop in Aroostook county last year has so far kept the price of potatoes low compared with the shortage prices of last year.

ESCAPING GAS IGNITED

In Cobbler Shop—And Firemen Were Called

A gas pipe was accidentally broken in the little shoe repairing shop at the corner of Market and Palmer streets, by workmen who are relaying the flooring, about 10:30 o'clock this morning and the escaping gas became ignited. The workmen tried to extinguish the fire by wrapping pieces of cloth around the pipe but the flames increased in proportion and were working their way up through the partitions. Word was sent to the central fire station and Fireman John O'Neill, with the aid of a chemical extinguisher, soon put an end to the fire.

Mr. Donnelly says he will put a gang of men at work in Andover street, as soon as conditions are favorable, for the purpose of repairing the street at a place where it was improperly oiled last fall.

Patent Monopoly Decision

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The so-called patent monopoly decision of the supreme court is to be virtually reviewed by the full bench in the case of a local druggist involved in a contest of his right to sell a patent medicine below the price prescribed by the manufacturer.

In the patent monopoly decision in the往期 case the right of a manufacturer of a machine to compel the buyer to use certain patented supplies with it was upheld, Chief Justice White and Justices Hughes and Lamar dissenting.

TROUBLE IN BROCKTON

Aldermen Defeat the Mayor's Appointees

BROCKTON, Jan. 21.—Before the biggest crowd that ever attended a meeting of the aldermen two of the four democrats and the two republicans of the mayor's board receded last night in defeat to the arguments made by Mayor Hickey, defendant, for executive order of the board of health and for the highway commission, which the voters last fall voted on which the

The action of the two democrats, Whalen and Crotton, in refusing to confirm the appointment of Frank W. Jackson to the board of health and Patrick P. McManus and James P. Powers to the highway commission was witnessed by democratic leaders, particularly such three have long been leading workers in the party.

The two republican aldermen, J. Edwin Maybury and Dr. John S. Burbank, were surprised by republican leaders for failing to confirm Ex. Alderman Lucia E. Churchill, who was appointed to the highway commission. So intense was the feeling that after the meeting plans were discussed for holding a mass meeting of voters, in the hope that the legislature may be appealed to for authority to appoint a highway commission.

The aldermen again refused to hold a joint convention with the common council for the election of city officers. Alderman Whalen and Crotton again failed with the two republicans in defeating its proposition, which, if passed, would mean the election of democrats in place of the present republican holdovers.

On the request for a joint convention from the common council, Alderman Whalen referred to his attitude toward the democratic party and charged Alderman Churchill with circulating stories detrimental to his democratic standing.

The aldermen said he would block any attempt on the part of a few to dictate city affairs. He was called to order by Mayor Hickey, who told him to talk to the question.

As matters now stand, unless the four aldermen can control change their attitude, there will be no highway commission and no joint convention, the two democrats in the upper board who have joined with the republicans thwarting the efforts of the democratic party to elect democrats to city offices.

Alderman Maybury presented an order for a loan of $50,000 for a new central police station, the order being referred to the finance committee. An order presented by Alderman Whalen to the junta of all public buildings were placed in control of the public property committee.

HOW MRS. BROWN SUFFERED

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken twelve bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 509 N. Walnut St., Iola, Kan.

IN SERVICE 45 YEARS

Lynn's Oldest Policeman Congratulated by Friends on Completing the Term.

LYNN, Jan. 21.—Martin Silver, the oldest policeman rounded out 15 years of service yesterday. He is not only the oldest member of the force in service, but is also, as he was born in Corinna, Me., Jan. 8, 1857. He was appointed a regular patrolman Jan. 29, 1893 by Mayor Roland G. Usher and he has been in continuous service since.

He is now the commanding officer, and it is believed by Mr. Silver that he has escorted more than 12,000 prisoners to the various jails.

He has never had any trouble except once on a train bound for the state fair, when a man got away, but later the prisoner showed up in Boston and waited for the officer to return, when he gave himself up.

Mr. Silver enjoys excellent health, and today he received congratulations on his long term of service.

MILFORD CARS DELAYED

Main Trolley Wire Breaks and All Traffic is Suspended or Conducted With Great Caution

MILFORD, Jan. 21.—The breaking of the trolley main wire of the Milford & Uxbridge street railway at 4:30 yesterday afternoon tied up cars for all parts south and west of Milford Centre more than three hours, but fortunately no one was injured.

The break came at Music Hall square when, while adjusting a new connection, the main wire was broken by a sudden pull of the repair gang and then fell from its suspending guys for at least quarter of a mile along Main street.

Trains were stopped or allowed to continue with extra precaution. Street railway men with red lanterns patrolled the sidewalk as guards. Late last evening the break was permanently repaired, but within an hour temporary connections were made that some cars could proceed. One delivery team, picked up the wire wire around one wheel and when the loose end slipped along its seat the driver made a hurried jump out of danger.

FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Committee Advances Arguments for Parade

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the committee of arrangements for the St. Patrick's day celebration met last night in the committee room in A. O. H. hall. The committee is composed of one delegate from each of the societies which plan to take part in the big demonstration. James J. McManamon, chief marshal of the parade, presided at the meeting.

Mr. McManamon spoke on the details of the parade, which he expects will be the largest ever held in this city. He said he had written to many of the organizations in the surrounding towns and he felt that each of those societies could have a good sized representation in line.

It was unanimously voted to send invitations to the A. O. H. divisions in Manchester and Nashua, N. H., Lawrence, Salem, Haverhill and Woburn, and ask them to join in the parade.

It was also decided by the committee that rallying delegations should be sent out to visit the various societies and arouse their heartiest interest in this parade. Chief Marshal McManamon stated that he intends to confer with the captains of the various companies of the state militia in the city and try to have the companies turn out as they have in past years, a precedent already established.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the A. O. H. will have a float depicting some well known incident in Irish history. It is also expected that one of the largest divisions of the parade will be that of the membership of the various Holy Name societies in this city and the surrounding towns.

The meeting adjourned to meet again in the general convention of delegates from the societies of this city, to be held in A. O. H. hall on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Some important announcements will be made at this meeting and a large attendance of all the delegates from the societies is desired.

MAN BORN IN BILLERICA

Died at His Home in Manchester, N. H.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 21.—Walter S. Holt, one of the leading business men of the city, died very suddenly Sunday morning at his home at Ashland and Amherst streets. The end came entirely without warning and was due to rheumatism of the heart.

Mr. Holt had enjoyed good health practically all his life and had suffered from no illness recently. Saturday afternoon he was about town with his son and business partner, George S. Holt, attending to some business errands. Then he went to the public library and walked home. He retired at night at his usual hour without complaining of feeling out of the ordinary, and his family knew nothing of his trouble until 4 o'clock in the morning. He died in a very few minutes.

Mr. Holt was head of the firm of W. S. Holt & Co., his son being the other member. This firm was organized eight years ago and deals in mill waste. It has done business with many different cotton mills in New England, buying the cotton waste and selling it to a firm in Chicopee, Mass., where it is made over. The Holt people have been among the largest dealers in this line in the state.

Mr. Holt was born in Billerica, Mass., a small town near Lowell, and was 53 years old. When he was a child 3 years old his parents moved to this city, and he was brought up here and had lived here ever since, practically all his life. His father was Joseph S. Holt, a soap manufacturer, who died several years ago, leaving a large estate on Amherst street near where his son and grandson made their home.

He attended the city schools and a private school on Wilson hill that has since been discontinued, and was a graduate of the high school. Upon completing his education he went to work in the Amoskeag mills as a clerk in the office of Charles L. Richardson. He was in the mills three years, and then secured employment in Boston, where he remained four years.

Returning to this city he became associated with Person C. Cheney, at one time governor, in the firm of the P. C. Cheney company, manufacturers of paper. He went into this business as an employee and rose to be a partner in the firm, and then agent of the company. The Cheney concern went out of business in 1909, and for the next six years Mr. Holt was a cotton waste contractor at Chicopee. Then he organized the Holt company.

The survivors include Mrs. Holt, the son and two daughters, Miss Marjorie M. Holt and Miss Doris E. Holt. There are also a granddaughter, Miss Mildred E. Holt; two brothers, Frank Holt of 28, Ashland street, and Curtis J. Holt of Chelmsford, Mass.; and a sister, Mrs. Alice J. Hopkins of Schenectady. The funeral will take place at the residence Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and interment will be in Pine Grove cemetery.

Mr. Holt was prominent in politics and fraternal orders. He was a member of the legislature in 1888 as a republican from the fourth ward, and was an intimate associate of the former governor by whom he was employed. He was a Mason in Trinity commandery of Knights Templar, a member of the Unitarian parish, and a charter member of the Cygnet and Derryfield clubs.

MOODY SCHOOL GROUNDS

Improvement Needed to Cover the Quagmire

Last year the park department, under the direction of Sept. Whittet, laid out the grounds surrounding the Moody school. Part of the grounds was sown with grass seed, part planted with shrubs and flowers, and part covered with cinders. The grounds in the rear of the building, however, are in a very bad condition after the wet weather. Principal Green had a disagreeable experience a week ago, when the ground at the rear of the school was so muddy that pupils who passed through it sank ankle deep. One boy chased by another fell headlong in the mud, and had to go home to get his clothes cleaned. This state of affairs is very disagreeable in connection with the school because the children bring in the mud upon their feet, and it gets all over the floors, thus rendering the work of keeping the floors clean much more difficult and making it wholly useless to oil the floors, a practice which has been lately introduced. A very small expenditure would put the Moody school grounds in good condition. The parts that are not grassed over should be covered with cinders with a surface layer of crushed stone well rolled down. An expenditure of $50 would put the grounds in reasonably good condition.

It is not improbable that other school grounds are in equally poor condition. We believe it is the business of the sub-committees to look after these matters and have them attended to. The grounds provided for the recreation of children should be kept in good condition. They should, at least, be kept free from soft mud, in which the children are liable to get submerged. A little attention to school grounds would add greatly to the comfort, convenience, and even the health of the children.

THOUGHT TO BE AMERICANS'

Burglars frustrated in attempt to steal $100,000 worth of pearls in London

LONDON, Jan. 21.—A determined attempt was made Saturday night or Sunday to steal $100,000 worth of pearls from the establishment of Mark Rubin, jewel merchant of 32 Holborn Viaduct, but it was not successful.

In the opinion of Scotland Yard the burglary was the work of a gang of American burglars, who left behind the most elaborate and most costly set of electrical tools and appliances ever seen by the London police. In addition to a portable electric light plant they abandoned 20 cylinders of oxygen and other gas.

A tent was erected around the safe to screen the operators from observation. They succeeded in cutting a large hole in the outer casing of the safe, but the inner shell frustrated their efforts.

The burglars apparently were disturbed while at work, and made their escape.

TELEPHONE PROBLEMS

An Investigation is Recommended

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of the American Telephone & Telegraph company and not the compulsory competitive provisions of the Sherman antitrust law, will be the means of solving in large measure the telephone problem, according to Atty. Gen. Wickerham, who yesterday announced that he had referred the whole question to the commission for investigation and action.

This terminates the investigation by the department of justice of the alleged $60,000,000 telephone trust, against which independent telephone companies have made charges of unfair treatment and of the employment of methods destructive of competition. The commission's investigation will be far-reaching and out of it is expected to grow the outline of a governmental policy with respect to the telephone and telegraph. It must be determined, according to officials, whether, in the interest and convenience of the public, a telephone or telegraph monopoly under rigid regulation should be tolerated by the federal government, or whether the government should take over utilities; or finally, whether competition should be enforced under the Sherman antitrust law and monopoly prohibited.

EDITH E. READ, Member of State Legislature, Dies of Nervous Prostration

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Edith Ellerbeck Read, member of the state legislature, died yesterday of nervous prostration. She was elected on the republican ticket at the last election and her condition became critical as the result, it is said, of an exciting campaign.

ANNANDALE ESCAPES

After shooting Hart the assassin

leaped through a window to an adjoining room, ran the length of a block, went down a stairway and escaped in a crowd.

KNOWLEDGE THAT WEBB HAD A WOMAN FRIEND IN THE FLAT LED THE POLICE TO WATCH THE PLACE. ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE WITH AN OCCUPANT OF ANOTHER FLAT IN THE BUILDING TO NOTIFY THE DETECTIVES IF WEBB SHOULD COME.

Hart was told this afternoon that Webb was there and the detective hurried to the place. He evidently encountered his slayer soon, for other detectives, attracted by the sound of a shot, arrived in the flat within a few minutes after Hart did and found him near death. He died before they could call a doctor.

The woman in the flat was arrested. Her name has not been revealed to the police.

TO REHEARSE WEDDING

Miss Gould Goes to Lyndhurst

is not known, but it is believed it will take place in the afternoon. Decorators have been busy all day placing plants and flowers in position for the wedding. Everything will be ready this afternoon.

It is expected that Mr. Franko will be present to play the music for the rehearsal.

The Rev. Daniel Russell of the Irvington Presbyterian church will also be on hand.

After the rehearsal there will be a dinner at Lyndhurst, and it is probable that Mr. Shepard will remain all night, so as to avoid an early trip from New York on Wednesday. Only 75 guests are to be present, including the members of the Gould and Shepard families.

One of the presents Miss Gould received today was a silver dish, the gift of 257 girls of her sewing school, who contributed 10 cents each. It was suitably inscribed.

CHANGES AT QUINCY

City Council Abandons Old Committee Practice—New Fire Truck Sought
Councilman Boyd Offered Order

QUINCY, Jan. 21.—Drastic changes in the rules of the city council were agreed upon at last night's session. The greatest change comes in the abolition of all standing committees which have done duty since Quincy became a city. In the future all matters will be referred to special committees appointed for the matters before the council.

Councilman Boyd offered an order for a $10,000 auto chemical and horse truck for West Quincy and also a resolution asking the legislature to allow Quincy to pay to Officers Quadey and Millard the reward of $500 offered by the city in 1910 for the apprehension of Louis G. Restell.

PLEASURE CAR EXHIBIT A SUCCESS

N. Y. Show Makes New Record for Retail Sales—Other Automobile News

The pleasure vehicle show, which closed in New York Saturday night, was a success in every particular, according to the reports of local automobile dealers and salesmen who were in the metropolis during the week. The display of cars was complete and up-to-date, the show of accessories was unexcelled, the tire display was greater than ever, while the attendance was not below that of previous years.

In the matter of actual sales at retail, the consensus of opinion among the manufacturers and exhibitors was that the New York show has at last jumped into a class which it has heretofore been without in the retail end. It has always been conceded that the New York and Chicago shows were national shows in name and purpose, and that the bulk of business accomplished here was that between the dealer and the maker, and that but few retail sales were made. This year, however, the conditions were not so pronounced, the individual purchaser coming stronger to the front than ever. This can readily be understood when it is remembered that the great majority of the models shown have been on the market and in the hands of the user for over four months, and the dealer who waited until January to secure an agency or representation of his cars was handicapped owing to the great amount of retail business that had already been accomplished.

The show committee conducted both shows in an admirable manner, and while strong efforts were made to make the Palace exhibit the piece de resistance, it was a noticeable fact that the Garden was always favored with a larger attendance. The impression prevails in New York that this was the last that the Garden will be used for show purposes. This impression has, however, prevailed for several years, and while the desire of those most vitally interested may be to transfer the allegiance of the motorists to the Palace, it cannot be done in a moment.

The body, which is a creation of one of the leading Amherst carriage factories, is mounted upon a 1912 Model 40 Duluth chassis which, it will be remembered, has a long wheel base and low centre of gravity, so that there is ample room within the coupe for four passengers without giving the complete car an overloaded appearance.

The body is finished in a very pleasing shade of grey, with a four-inch heading of red around the centre, and the upholstering is in a very rich maroon broadcloth.

Several unique features are embodied in the car, among them being the arrangement of the driver's seat which places this several inches in advance of the other two persons sitting on the cross seat. By this arrangement the person in the drop seat is not crowded in any way, there being ample room for all.

The car is, of course, electrically lighted throughout, current being provided by dynamo system which, when not needed for the several electric lights, is charging the storage battery which, in turn, is used when the engine is idle.

Jackson Majestic Delivered

The Jackson Majestic recently purchased by Adolphe Lamontagne, the well-known furniture dealer, through the agency of the Lowell Motor Mart in Merrimack street, has arrived in this city, it being the first of the 1913 Jacksons to be seen here. It is a four cylinder engine and develops 15 horse power. The body of the car is massive while the running gear is a dark blue.

Ellis A. Robinson, cable foreman for the N. E. T. & T. Co., has purchased a Ford touring car.

"With the right or left-hand drive prove the most popular on high-grade motor cars." This is a question frequently asked in the past, and it is often asked for me to give an unprejudiced opinion, for we have both styles to offer, said a well known automobile dealer the other day. The first rule is to embody only those features which are best, safest and most convenient; second, those that meet the public demand.

"One—The driver and the passengers on the front seat can step into the car directly from the curb, which is an advantage, especially in bad weather and on a busy thoroughfare. The front seat occupants do not have to step into the street at all and so do not wet their feet, or run the danger of being struck by passing traffic.

"Two—Most collisions between automobiles occur when the driver is proceeding on the right side of the street and attempts to turn off to the left, when he is overtaken and struck by some other vehicle which has been following him and is attempting to pass to his left. The traffic laws require a vehicle overtaking another to pass to the left, but if the driver of the vehicle that is being overtaken is sitting on the right side, he is unable to signal out of the left side of his car; whereas, from the left seat he can readily extend his hand and thereby warn following vehicles of his intention to make the most dangerous of all turns.

"Three—In touring on country roads the left drive has the considerable advantage that the driver or chauffeur passing a vehicle going in the opposite direction, is closer to the vehicle he is passing, and is therefore able to gauge more exactly a safe distance to allow between the two vehicles."

Hannibal Babbitt Sedan

One of the prettiest cars that has been seen in Lowell this year is the Babbitt Sedan, which will be delivered to Reta Delys of Burlington Avenue within a few days. The Sedan is practically the same as the Babbitt Cross Country, with the exception that it is an enclosed car with a capacity of four passengers. All windows are made to drop with the exception of the rear window. The front window is of the swinging type. The interior of the body is richly trimmed and upholstered and is equipped with silk curtains on adjustable rollers. There is an electric headlight in the ceiling, four large black and nickel side and tail electric lights and the engine self-starting by electricity. Mr. Delys has also purchased a Cross Country touring body which he will use on the chassis in the summer time. The touring body has a seating capacity of five passengers. This excellent machine was sold by Joseph Martin of the Moody Bridge garage.

Hit With Pickax Handle

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 21—Charles Barber of this city, employed by John Swaine, a blacksmith of Taylor street, was assaulted yesterday while at work, having been struck on the back of the head with the handle of a pickax. The police are looking for C. Blagot, a blacksmith's helper, who was charged with striking the blow.

Barber was removed to the Collins Emergency hospital and, after being attended by the doctors, he was able to leave for his home.

In its eight years of existence, the Vanderbilt Cup has undoubtedly caused the spending of more money than has any other trophy in the automobile world. In the eight races there has been a total of more than 150 entrants. It has been conservatively estimated that it costs from $10,000 to $15,000 to build a car that will have a chance in

MOTOR SPEEDWAY RACES

Big Demand for Seats and Parking Spaces

The sale of seats for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next Memorial day was a record breaker. There was a big demand for seats—larger than on the opening day last year. The sale indicates a keen interest among automobile race lovers from coast to coast.

Requests from all parts of the United States have been arriving daily for seats. This has happened since Jan. 1, and even earlier. Those requests were filled and filled in the order of their being received.

The Wolverine Automobile club has the honor of being the first automobile club to be served with its reservation. The Detroit club, which toured to the race last year and which will probably do so this year, took a block of 300 seats. This order was made at the close of the race last year but was renewed shortly before the holiday. The Hoosier Motor club of Philadelphia has taken 600-seats and 30 parking spaces.

The National Cash Register Co. was on deck with an order for 500 seats. The company will throw an automobile party for its employees on the day of the race.

James F. Gamble, a lumberman of Highland Park, Ky., bought the first parking space for a machine. Among the requests for reservations are those from practically every automobile factory in the United States, each of which will send a big party. There were filled hundreds of private orders for the best seats. The sale will go on until the day of the race.

BERT NELSON,
One of the Features of This Week's Bill at Keith's.

Keith's Theatre

Judging from the reception, he got last night, everyone was glad to see Bert Melrose back again. He is one of the star features on the good all-around bill at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. Bert was seen here last year, and he has the same line of talent to offer this time—talent in his case meaning his ludicrous contortions and his amazing facility for almost dashing himself to pieces from a pile of tables. His airy Scotch costume that oftentimes interferes with his maneuvers, gives him a unique and original touch to the audience, while his manner and his facial expressions are as funny as ever.

There have been other acts at Keith's recently that were somewhat similar to Melrose, but he has a number of tricks and a kind of humor that is all his own, and that that never fail to appeal to the risibilities of audiences.

THE CRAFT OF THE TURK

An American correspondent writing from Constantinople states that during the armistice, by the terms of which both parties in the Balkan war were to rest upon their arms and make no effort to strengthen their positions, there has been feverish activity within the Turkish lines. In open violation of the truce, No less than 70 powerful field guns of French manufacture—the same arm that the allies have been using so effectively—have been received from some mysterious source, put together in the Turkish arsenals, and mounted on the lines outside the city. Moreover, thousands of troops have come in from Turkey in Asia, and have replaced the men in the trenches and forts who have already met with defeat at the hands of the allies.

The Turks, with oriental craft, apparently believe that if they can win at least one decisive battle outside of Constantinople, it will be possible to obtain modification of the terms of peace. They seem to entirely ignore the other alternative, and if they are beaten again when hostilities are renewed, their boundary may be pushed even into Asia Minor.

The allies feared, for a time, that the European powers not concerned in the war, would attempt to rob them of the fruits of their victory; but the developments of the past week have shown that Europe is willing to allow the Bulgars, the Servians, the Greeks and the Montenegrins to claim the territory that they have conquered. If the war is resumed the position of the allies, so far as it relates to other powers, will be stronger than before, and the world will probably witness a mid-winter campaign of unrelenting aggression and frightful loss of life. In the end there can be but one result. Turkey will be crushed and treated as a subjugated nation. The Mohammedan world cannot go to her relief because in the centuries-old contest between the cross and the crescent the Christian nations long ago obtained the upper hand. The holy war has already been preached anew in Africa, but it finds Italian, French and English regiments blocking the path to Europe. Fatalism stands dumb before progress, but in the end will be swept out of the way. So does the civilization of the world march on.

HARD TO STAMPEDE

When Woodrow Wilson was running for the presidency his opponents made all the capital possible out of the fact that he had been a school master. Of course one travels quite a distance from the position of school master to that of the head of a great university and later the governorship of the state, but the politicians and the cartoonists passed this fact over lightly. Nevertheless, there are excellent qualities developed in a successful school master, and especially one who becomes a successful university president, not the least of which is an ability to keep one's counsel at all times.

Democratic leaders in congress who are seeking to commit the president-elect to their pet plans for legislation in advance of his occupancy of the White House are not meeting with much success. Even under pressure Mr. Wilson does not stampede. His attention is much occupied now in securing the passage of certain reform laws in New Jersey to which he stands committed, and which cannot receive his active aid much longer. He is entirely willing to discuss his policy when it relates to state matters, but when it comes to showing his hand in Washington affairs, he has given no definite encouragement to the partially outlined schemes."

To the majority of those who have visited him, Gov. Wilson has given little indication of his plans for legislation or his support in certain policies.

The few to whom he has confided definite opinions have been pledged to secrecy and have been unable to use the president-elect's influence to aid their own plans or to support any general program of action.

Wise Gov. Wilson! President Taft, to his undying, found himself committed to many matters before he fully understood their significance, and he lost the virtue of being true to his promises. Mr. Wilson is not going to be caught on any snap judgment. He was not so caught when he was at the head of the great student body at Princeton, although even in that position he had to deal with many difficult questions.

SKILLED HELP WANTED

F. G. R. Gordon, writing in the Texie Manufacturers' Journal, says that our national laws, passed originally to protect the skilled labor in this country, have proven a failure in that while they serve to keep out the trained weavers and other mill workers of the British Isles, they do not shut out the unskilled labor of other countries, now filling the textile mills of the east.

Seen and Heard

"Any man may commit a mistake, but none but a fool will continue in it." To be perfectly healthy and hygienic, one should not keep a dog or cat in a flat. Farewell, Fido dear, farewell!

Wilson's mind is still open on the cabinet, he says; so, if you would care to accept a position of that kind, you have plenty of time to confer with him about it.

We notice that at the inauguration banquet in France, "lors d'entrees francaises," has a prominent place on the menu. We never did like them, things, and as for "Volatiles des mers," we simply can't stand for that kind of pie. Or is it something to drink?

Charles Mellen wants some kind-hearted person to lend him $25,000. We'd like to oblige you, Charles, and invite to have you think we're silly, but the rent will come in and we haven't got any money to lend. Next month, so we don't quite run our wits clear to letting you have the money just at present. You might ask us again about the middle of next month.

March 4th has always been an important day in this country on account of the presidential inauguration, but this year March 3d is to be the great day. That's when the suffragettes are going to have their big parade in Washington. We'd like to see it, especially the petticoat cavalry.

Of all the hard luck stories we have heard this week, the saddest is about a man who lost his right eye in a fire-mow, and, in spite of the fact that he still had one eye to the good, was unable to locate the missing orb, even after hours of patient search.

A doctor says that our choir says no mechanical or physiological pose, and he wants to know what they are for anyway. They are principally ornamental doctor, but they also serve to hold up our jaw, besides being useful in case one wants to grow whiskers.

We have been hearing a lot of talk about budding like bushes, and even a few dark hints about sprouting May-flowers. We have an infinite sense of delicacy, that makes us disposed to call people "girls," and we give girls names like the most names we have, and a story like this is apt to elicit a few rude remarks from us.

Men, that is the married ones, have been feeling jubilant of late, because a woman's waist has been invented that fastens with only two hooks. The inventor, a young individual, contrived a whole dress that is bisected with only one fastener. Our informant was unable to tell us where that one fastener was located. We hope this report is true.

A prominent Italian, whose first name is Michelangelo, lets his friends call him "Mike" for short. This abbreviation is, in the opinion of a leading newspaper, a鸱夷子皮, a contemptuous nickname given to a humdrum soubriquet that it is a crime to christen a helpless infant. Michelangelo, and we wouldn't blame the aforesaid infant, in the least, if, when he grew up, he spurned that lengthy appellation and preferred plain "Mike."

"Cheerfulness is a thing to be more profoundly grateful for than all that ever inspired or talent ever produced. Not least of all, it is a most important achievement to delineate, intended and persistent, cheerfulness which we can create, can cultivate and can so foster and cherish that after a few years the world will never suspect that it was not an hereditary gift."

A city chap, the story ran, went on a farm to help with the harvesting in, in return for his board. The first morning, when the farmer called him, it was so dark and frosty that the city chap couldn't resist another brief snooze before getting up. But he was, at that, out in the field by 5 o'clock. "Fine morning!" he said to his employer, gently.

Through the dim dawn light the farmer scowled at him.

"It was," he said.

"The universe pays every man in his own coin," if you smile, it smiles upon you; if you frown, you will be frowned at; if you sin, you will be invited into gay company; if you think, you will be entertained by thinkers; and if you love the world and earnestly seek for the good that is therein you will be surrounded by loving friends, and nature will paint into your hands the treasures of the earth. Censure, criticise and hate, and you will be censured, criticised and hated by your fellowmen.

"Every seed brings forth after its kind. Mistrust begets mistrust, and confidence begets confidence, kindness begets kindness, love begets love. Resist not, and you will be resisted. To meet the aggressive assault every entity rises up rigid and impenetrable—while higher mountains of granite mists and floods away on the bosom of the river of love."

A RAINY DAY

I love a rainy day, I do.

The thunder rolling in the sky,

And only just a patch or two

Of blueness to relieve the eye;

And then the rain just pouring down

Until the gutters overflow,

And such a blanket over town.

That's only misty houses show,

And all the wide world wringing wet;

And all the tree boughs weighted low;

Each one wet as it can get,

Each leaf about to overflow;

And every grass blade full of drops.

That's like it like gleaming pearls.

And then when the swift downpour stops,

The laughter of glad boys and girls.

And then a cloud that lifts and goes

And lets the sun its banners throw.

In heliotrope and gold and rose

On clouds and on the earth below;

Until the sky is clear again.

A wonderful rainbow appears,

A bridge betwixt the earth and sky,

Twixt heaven and this vale of tears.

Each rainbow in bridge, I know,

From earth up to the jasper gate;

I know friend souls are held below

On earth completed to here await

A rainbow to clear the air,

To make the way sweet overhead,

And then the rainbow doth appear—

A path for angel feet to tread.

I may be wrong—I only know

I like a pelting rainy day,

And then to have soft breezes blow,

When all the clouds have gone away,

And then the skies are blue again,

Until the green leaves tilt and sing

Their gathered raindrops in the sun.

Like diamonds from a broken string.

And then the city doors swing wide

To make way for a happy rout,

And barefoot children glory-eyed

All running helter skelter out

And splashing where the puddles stand.

And throwing raindrops every way;

Blue skies are bluer overhead,

When rainwashed by a rainy day.

ALICE AND MAY

Hello, May. Have you read about them? I suppose that is to prevent them from hugging! That reminds me. I went to a lot of dances this summer in Maine, where they did all the fancy, Portland fancies and quadrilles and contra dances. Didn't you ever do a contra dance called the Lady of the Lake?

No, what's it like, Alice? Well, it's the most exciting life you ever took in. In my life, you know, I've been to a lot of dances this summer in Maine, where they did all the fancy, Portland fancies and quadrilles and contra dances. Didn't you ever do a contra dance called the Lady of the Lake?

Says There's a Decline in Brainy Pugilists

In the passing of Eaglehorn from college football Dartmouth loses one of the best linemen she ever had. Although not placed on the All-American until this year, "D.H." Eaglehorn was a tower of strength in the big Green line last year. It was not decided until after his election to the captaincy of the 1912 team that the giant tackle would be ineligible to play next season. Unknown to the college in general, Dartmouth's only All-American selection had attended a small western college for a year and played on her football team. Among the larger colleges a ruling exists whereby a man can only play three years of varsity football. Thus Eaglehorn, having played two years at Dartmouth, was declared ineligible. It was a hard blow to the prospects of next year's team from Hanover.

Pendleton to Become "Pro"

"T.H." Pendleton is evidently carrying out his plans as regards going into professional baseball. One of the craftiest men who ever donned the moccasin pants, his plans for a fat contract seem to be in keeping with his football career. It was Pendleton, the slim, wily chap, by 25 pounds the lightest man on the Princeton team, who ducked, skinned and ran 30 yards through the entire Dartmouth team for the only score in the annual game between the two institutions in the 1910 contest. Just now this gentleman seems to be playing as much havoc with Manager Farrell's nerves as he did with those of the Dartmouth rovers in his long sprint for an All-American.

Haley Looks Like Brickett

Henry Bailey, captain of the high school track team, bears a striking athletic resemblance to Charley Brickett, the Harvard athlete. When at Everett high the now famous Brickett possessed no more promise than the Lowell boy does today. Bailey is about the same height, weight and dimensions as the All-American halfback was three years ago. Both on the football field and the track Bailey is almost an exact replica of the college man's style. With the same advantages of training, coaching, etc., who knows what the local boy might do?

Ferriman College Meet

There will certainly be some very close finishes next Saturday in that Ferriman college meet. That relay race between the N. Y. A. C., Irish American, and the Boston A. A. should be a whitewash. The B. A. A. is figured at third place and her entire team of Haplin, Lee, Merschew and Caldwell, all have "National Champion" tacked onto their name. It certainly will be a treat worth going a long way to see.

MR. HENRY TURNER BAILEY

Lectured Before the Middlesex Women's Club on Beauty of Color

At the meeting of the Middlesex Women's club yesterday afternoon, in Colonial hall, Mr. Henry Turner Bailey, editor of the School Art Book, lectured on "Beautiful Color." Mr. Bailey is an art teacher of wide experience, having been teacher of drawing in the Boston evening schools, supervisor of drawing in Lowell, and an agent of the state board of education for the promotion of industrial drawing. He has studied art abroad, and is the author of many books and articles upon this subject.

Mr. Bailey is a clever speaker, with a pleasing flexible voice, and he is able to hold the attention of his audience, even when offering the most intricate explanations. The lecture was illustrated with blackboard drawings and various colored charts and fabrics.

Mr. Bailey began his lecture by making a comparison between music appreciation, as analogous to color appreciation. Some people prefer a brass band to any other kind of music; others like the piano; and still others, who pride themselves on being finer string, say that the violin is the very best music. Then there are others who say that, after all, the best music in the world is furnished by the sounds of nature, the sighing of the winds through the trees, and the murmuring of the waves. In mechanical music, such people like the Eolian harp, since it produces the most natural sound.

People are sensitive to color in the same way. The magnificence of a sunset, with the gold of the west and the red of the clouds against the gold, stir in them a feeling of response to those colors. The brilliant colorings of October appeal to some people, while others, who say they are more refined, think that May is a more beautiful month than October. Many artists prefer the April landscape, but there are very few who enjoy the sombre, subdued colors of a March scene.

If we have the best color sensations our enjoyment of life will be much greater than it otherwise would. Color appreciation is as much a matter of inheritance as anything. A man was once telling a doctor about a friend of his who inherited tuberculosis. The doctor told him not to put it that way, but to say that his friend possessed a diminished power of resistance to the disease germs. Boys in school often have a diminished resistance to information. So in the matter of color, if you come from a family who appreciate fine color, you will respond to it more readily than people who have not inherited it.

A simple way in which you can begin to discipline your color sense, so simple and cheap, Mr. Bailey said, that you probably won't want to do it, is to get little five cent sample books of colors, and then selecting a familiar flower that you like, try to analyze and match the colors of the flower in your book. If you continue this practice of analyzing the colors in nature, you will gradually find out that there is nothing common or unclean in nature; even the lark from an old tree, or the dead leaf blown along the street is a marvel of color, if you have eyes to see it.

Some knowledge of the theory of color is necessary in order to understand harmony in color. The six primary colors of the spectrum are red, orange, yellow, green, blue and violet. We find these colors modified from light to dark. If we get delicate tones in the reflection of the rainbow, we call them tints; if they are deeper, as in the reflections of a mountain lake, we get shades of color.

Many color combinations can be made. Cuisse, a combination of the two opposite sides of the spectrum, red and violet, is one of the worst combinations made. Mr. Bailey said that it should be "shriek" instead of cuisse. The varying gradations of color are called hues. There are three hues between each color, though people with a keen color sense can distinguish more. A tint of color means that white has been added to it; a shade is the color with the addition of black; a hue is one of the three grades of intensity of the color.

There are four kinds of harmony in color. A monochromatic is a one color combination; an analogous combination consists of colors that are something alike, i. e., that are near each other in the spectrum; opposite colors in the spectrum, when united, form a complementary combination; while a combination of three colors is called a triad. A triad of the most difficult and most charming of all color schemes, but it usually takes an artist to achieve a successful triad.

In speaking of the modern appreciation of beauty, Mr. Bailey said that the new Woolworth store in New York is more beautiful than three-quarters of the cathedrals in Europe, even though it is so high, as the workmen said, that

Some of the Innovations in Millinery to be Introduced This Spring—Many New Ones to be Seen

Now is the time, as the walrus said, to talk of many things—style things especially, for, although winter is here climatically, in the fashion zone it is the early spring season. Hats are the harbingers of this time, and if all signs do not fail our headgear for first spring wear is going to be of small and medium shapes. The materials are soft and supple, lending themselves gracefully to individual head adjustment.

There are a few general hat rules that all women should ponder over at the beginning of a season. Indeed, these old but very important rules hold they have to lie down to let the moon go by.

Mr. Bailey illustrated good and bad color schemes with samples of silk, with advertisements and color charts. He said that the nasturtium is one of the best examples of an analogous color scheme.

In speaking of harmony in dress, Mr. Bailey said that a monochromatic scheme of coloring was the best for street wear, although analogous combinations, giving a one tone effect, were also permissible. For evening wear, or special occasions when it is necessary and desirable to look as charming as possible, a complementary color scheme may be used. Mr. Bailey told an amusing story about a very stout lady, clad in a purple dress, and with an orange feather on her hat, who once asked his opinion of her taste in dress. He answered her very frankly, with the remark that an elephant should not be attired in the gorgeous colorings of a butterfly. The next time he met the lady he found that she had taken his words literally, and was dressed in gray, which was vastly more becoming than the purple and orange combination.

VISITING IN LOWELL

Aerobat John B. Rochette Has Returned to This City After Traveling in the South.

John B. Rochette, aerobatic diver of this city, has returned to his home at 129 Moody street, after concluding a 32-weeks' engagement with Smith's Greatest Show.

The young man'sfeat consists of diving from a 60-foot ladder into a tank six feet deep, 12 feet long and 10 feet wide, and turning somersaults in the descent from the ladder to the tank. He has traveled all over the southern states and on March 15, he is to return to Augusta, Ga., and go on a 16-weeks' engagement with the same company.

SAYS CANADA WILL BE FREE

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Henri Bourassa, the famous leader of the Laurier bolt in the last Canadian political campaign and who is now opposing financial contribution to the English navy as embodied in the Borden measure, predicts ultimate independence for Canada.

He characterized the deceased Laurier as hopelessly blackeved by reciprocity, and insisted that Borden, at the head of the present government, was having difficulty in making good with his former anti-imperialistic constituents.

Flowers in the Home

Every housewife likes to have her house and table tastefully decorated with flowers, but when one's purse is slender or a florist's shop is not within reach the matter is hard to solve. Yet with a small outlay and a small amount of trouble it is possible to have enough plants and flowers to last through the winter.

Much can be done by the mere amateur, provided care and attention are given regularly, but the woman who remembers on one day and forgets on the next had better not attempt to grow anything. Bulbous plants are the easiest to handle, and in addition the bulbs can be bought cheaply.

Bulbs, too, have the great advantage of being clean to keep in the house, no soil being required. Fill the pots to within one inch of the top with pebbles, set the bulbs in and cover the whole with water. Put away in a dark, cool place for two or three weeks, then take care to keep the water at the same height all the time, then bring them out and give them as much light and air as possible, changing the water every eight days by draining it off and by replacing it with water of the same temperature. The question of keeping the water at the same temperature all the time is an important one.

Artistic pots and vases matching the color scheme to place the bulbs in add much to their attractiveness. For instance, there are ten or twelve varieties of hyacinth, white, bluish purple and pink being the most usual, but red, yellow, various shades of blue and variegated ones are also to be had. It is easy to guess that if the pots are tastefully chosen, beauty and artistic scheme can be evolved.

Bulbs started now will be at their best at Easter time, which falls this year on March 23.

EDISON OF THE NAVY

Mustin Earns the Title by Perfecting a Novel Gun Sighting Device

Lieut.-Com. Henry C. Mustin, U. S. N., has earned the nickname of "the Edison of the navy" by perfecting the sighting device with which our modern battleships are equipped.

When Capt. McCalla, was in command of the Marabout during the Spanish-American war he had inscribed on the deck beams over each gun these words: "A well-directed shot is the best protection against the enemy."

This is more than ever true today, when larger ships and more powerful guns have increased the range to such an extent that the enemy is almost out of sight to the naked eye.

It was about the year 1883 that the telescope was first tested in conjunction with the firing of a modern gun. The tremendous concussion broke the lens, however, so that in order to use it at all the telescope had to be detached from the gun before firing, thereby entailing a loss of several seconds in time after aim had been taken.

Later, to obviate this defect, the telescope was adjusted to the axis of the gun by a system of parallel arms moving up and down in unison with the gun, though detached from it. This, of course, was a great improvement, but there were still grave practical defects.

"Well along in the early '90s," writes T. Darr Walker in the Scientific American, "a young midshipman at Annapolis, lean faced and square of jaw, but like a medium sized Hercules, quiet mannered but a bulldog in the football field, interested himself in the study of optics. Naturally enough his thoughts were directed to the defective lenses of the gun telescopes. The lenses broke when the gun was fired, therefore it was necessary to invent a non-breakable lens."

"One day years later, while stationed in Washington, Mustin called a few of his brother officers to the window near his desk on the second floor of a building in the navy yard. He showed them a lens with a metal band 'shrunken' around its circumference. Then he opened the window and deliberately threw the lens with might upon the brick pavement below. The others knew of his pet hobby and thought he had given it up in disgust and had taken this way of telling them so. But he put on his hat, lit a cigarette, and bade them follow him."

"He led them down the stairs amid considerable joking and out to the spot where the lens lay on the pavement. The glass was unbroken. The one great defect of the telescope sight had been overcome and Mustin had made possible long range gunnery of the modern navy. The thus of the little glass glass with its metal collar upon the brick pavement was the signal for the nations to begin to build their dreadnaughts."

"To properly mount the telescope with the gun was the next problem that Mustin overcame. This latter achievement may be better appreciated in the light of the fact that a variation of unison between telescope and gun of even the thousandth part of an inch will make the gunner miss his mark."

"In describing Mustin's latest, and it seems to me, greatest achievement, I will have to explain briefly how gun-sights are adjusted in exact unison with the gun. Ever since war was rendered less personally brutal by the use of the cannon the adjusting of sights will go that far—or there are disgruntled men among the crew. At some opportune moment some one turns the justiment screw on one of the big guns, throwing the sight out of accord. Of what use would the gun be then?"

"The danger of such a situation has now been practically nullified by Mustin's latest device, and the worst a secret enemy can do is to attempt the impossible feat of breaking all the gun telescopes on the ship. This now enables the gunner to adjust his sights under any conditions of sea weather, but by night as well as day. And furthermore during firing he becomes cognizant of the fact at once if by chance his sights are not working right and can adjust them immediately."

"It should be a source of pride to all Americans that our government has not needed to go outside of its own Ann Arbor graduates in order to bring about these perfections in the working efficiency of the navy. No royalties are paid to officers for work like this. All of it is expected and it is considered in the line of duty."

CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL, UGH!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best For Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 50 feet of bowel down; we coax them. We have no dread after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold; has diarrhea, sore throat, stomach-ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember, look at the tongue, if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic, simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

with the sights will render it useless again.

"Now stretch your imagination a bit and conjure up the following situation: War is in progress. The bore sighting of a ship's gun has all been properly and painstakingly accomplished, and it has been put out to sea in search of the enemy. On the heaving bosom of the ocean no more bore sighting can be done, with definite results. There are spies on board—an enemy will go that far—or there are disgruntled men among the crew. At some opportune moment some one turns the justiment screw on one of the big guns, throwing the sight out of accord. Of what use would the gun be then?"

Exports of the United States

The rapid disappearance of meats and breadstuffs from the exports of the United States is sharply illustrated by the figures of the calendar year 1912, just completed by the statistical division of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. They show, for example, an exportation of but 33,000 cattle in the calendar year 1912, against 164,000 in 1911, 275,500 in 1908, 424,000 in 1905, and 527,000 in 1901.

The value of the cattle exports of 1912 was but $2,000,000, spending in round terms, against $1,000,000 in 1911, $24,000,000 in 1908, $15,000,000 in 1905, and $32,000,000 in 1901.

Breadstuffs exported in 1912, while showing a larger total than in 1911, are far below those of earlier years, the total for the calendar year 1912 approximating $165,000,000, against $215,000,000 in 1907 and $27,000,000 in 1901.

Further indication of the changing character of the export trade is found in the fact that the exportation of agricultural products as a whole, while larger in the fiscal year 1912 than in previous year except 1907, form but 18 per cent of the total exports, against 37 per cent in 1907, 66 per cent in 1893, 75 per cent in 1888, and 54 per cent in 1880.

He was going up the wharf, he says, when he was met by the pair, who, without warning, fell to punching and kicking him. He fought them off for a time, but was overpowered.

Wirt stated that he knew that the C. W. Parker was ready to sail last evening and evidently the two men had stayed ashore until the last minute.

He was kicked and beaten about the chest and head and his body was a mass of bruises. Several ribs were broken and he was in such a weakened condition that he was barely able to tell the officers the circumstances of the assault.

He said that he had been beaten and robbed by two men employed on the sea-going tug C. W. Parker, which has been called for Newport News, Va. He told the police that he knew his assailants and said that one was John Plugg, the other he knew only as Michael.

THREE LOWELL GREEKS KILLED AND NEARLY A SCORE WOUNDED IN BATTLE AT JANINA

THE LOCAL MEMBERS OF THE HOLY GREEK REGIMENT

According to letters received in this city, the members of the Greek Holy regiment, who left Lowell a few months ago to take part in the Balkan-Turkish war, are suffering intensely, and in a recent battle three local men were killed, while nearly a score were badly wounded, some of whom it is believed will not recover from their injuries.

When the first call to arms reached this city, the members of the Holy regiment packed their things and sailed for Greece, headed by their captain, Costas Constantini. Upon arriving in Greece they were immediately sent to the front, but until recently they did not meet with any mishap. However, luck was not to favor them all the time, and a short time ago they took part in a battle near Janina, and in the conflict they lost three of their members, Lieut. John Perdilis, Apostolos Pappavastis and Vasilios Goureas.

The letter claims that the Turks exploded mines in the ground, blowing the men to pieces while long pieces of pointed wire were sticking out of the ground. There were also pits into which the men fell when the mines exploded, and at the bottom were also barbed wires. Out of the 218 men in the entire regiment which consisted of men from New York, Lowell and Harvard, 30 were killed and 63 were wounded, none so badly that it is not thought they will recover.

The Lowell men who were injured are: Demetrios Karanassopoulos, John Karahancis, Vasilios Zikos, Efthimios Zarakakis, Thomas Tsanias, Styros Sifas, Christos Pranelas.

A BIG CROWD ON HAND

At the City Hall This Afternoon

The announcement to the effect that the case having to do with certain opposition to the reappointment of Victor H. J. Belle Isle, as constable would be given a hearing, was productive of a full house at City Hall this afternoon. All roads seemed to lead to the municipal mansion and long before the hour set for the meeting, 2 o'clock, the gallery was crowded and the side seats on the floor were all taken. There were some misgivings and very perceptible disappointments when it was whispered that Mr. Belle Isle would not appear.

The meeting was called for 2 o'clock, but as usual, the council was late in getting together and at 2:45 o'clock their seats were still vacant.

PLOT TO KILL MADERO

Being Investigated by the Secret Service Men

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Anarchists in the United States are said to be plotting against the life of President Madero and both United States and Mexican secret service operatives are trying to ferret out the plotters. Mexican agents who unearthed the alleged plot reported it to the state department and the latter in turn gave it to the department of justice. The state department was informed of the arrest of two alleged anarchists in Florida last night. Officials admit they may be conspirators.

QUESTION IS RAISED

By Retirement of Minister
From Yale

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 21.—The retirement of the Rev. Joseph Twitchell of Hartford from the Yale corporation raises an interesting question. It is pointed out here today, as to whether he will be succeeded by a clergyman or a layman. Mr. Twitchell resigned yesterday after 36 years' service. If a layman is elected to the vacancy the clerical representation on the corporation will be reduced to seven. The total membership of that body is 19, including the president of the university and the two ex-officio members, the governor and Lieutenant governor of Connecticut. The clerical branch, under the name of the original trustees, had originally a majority of clergymen in the corporation numbering 10, but have voluntarily within a few years elected two laymen, giving the laymen a clear majority in the membership.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Some Very Appetizing

Dishes

Beat the yolks of six eggs, lightly add to them one quart of fresh milk and one cup of sugar, put in a double boiler and cook to smooth custard. As soon as the mixture coats a spoon take from the fire and strain. Set away to cool. When quite cold, add one pint of cream, more sugar if desired and a tablespoonful of flavoring. When the freezer is ready for the cream, turn in and add the beaten whites of the eggs and freeze. If the ice cream is to be molded one tablespoonful of gelatin soaked half an hour in one-half cup of milk reserved from the custard should be added. Then the custard is done. While this cream is sufficient unto itself, there are times when the hostess would like to add a chocolate sauce, which is made thus:

Hot Chocolate Sauce

Mix two ounces of grated chocolate or cocoa with two cupfuls of granulated sugar, one-half cupful of water, a tablespoonful and a half of butter and a little stick of cinnamon. Cook until the mixture forms a soft bar when dropped into cold water. Remove the stick cinnamon and add a few drops of vanilla, pour into a pretty pitcher and send about with the cream for each guest to help herself.

Walnut Coffee Cake

Rub a half cupful of butter to a cream with a half cupful of sugar and add one well beaten egg. Sift two cupfuls of flour with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of salt and add to the mixture alternately with two-thirds of a cupful of a cupful of milk. Beat thoroughly, add a half cupful of chopped walnut meats dredged with flour, turn into a buttered pan, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon, bake in a moderate oven and cut in squares when cool.

Baked Ham

Put the ham in a kettle and cover with cold water. Bring to a boil and let back on the stove where it will simmer for three hours or until it is almost tender. Add two tablespoonsfuls of vinegar and boil until tender, let cool in same water it was cooked in, and when almost cold remove the skin, sprinkle with sugar and bake in a rather slow oven for an hour. A few whole cloves can be stuck into the ham before baking.

Fine Left Over Dish

Fried oysters which have been left over may be minced and have added to them an equal quantity of chopped celery. This should be mixed with mayonnaise and served on a leaf of lettuce between slices of hot buttered toast. A bit of bacon or ham laid on top gives an additional relish.

Sliced Cold Tongue

Slice the cooked tongue and arrange in a circle, with the edges overlapping each other. Surround this with a border of crisp white lettuce leaves and head in the centre a pyramid of tartare sauce. Place it in the ice chest for at least one hour before serving.

Government to Act on

Reports From Mexico

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Disquieting reports of grave situation at Vera Cruz, Mexico, today, caused the state department officials to seriously consider detaching one of the warships from the first division of the Atlantic fleet at Guantanamo for immediate duty at the Mexican port. No reassuring news comes during the day this may be done.

rebel activities in southern Mexico in which official despatches today say small towns and ranches have been attacked and pillaged and women carried off have aroused apprehension for the safety of Americans in the disturbed zone. That the Madero government was providing little or no protection for foreign interests has again been made evident by the recent action of American planters in announcing that they proposed to pay tribute to the rebel Zapatista to protect their growing crops against other rebel bands and raiders.

State department officials admitted today that their reports were of a character so grave as to indicate that the presence of a United States warship might be necessary to protect Americans. The first division of the Atlantic fleet, composed of the dreadnaughts Wyoming, North Dakota, Utah and Florida, arrived at Colon last night for target practice, while the remainder of the big fleet is at Guantanamo. Any of the dreadnaughts will make 20 knots an hour.

SMUGGLED DIAMONDS

Worth $20,000 Found

by N. Y. Dealer

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Smuggled diamonds worth more than $20,000, government agents say, were found today in a package received from Amsterdam, Holland, by Nathan Green, a New York diamond dealer. Green was arrested as he got the package at the registered mail window of the general postoffice. Inside the package special treasury agents found a photograph but hidden in the wrappings were the diamonds.

Green is a member of the firm of Green Bros. Immediately after his arrest government agents went to the firm's place of business and seized diamonds valued at $60,000.

LICENSE COMMISSIONER

Woodbury Appointed by

Mayor Scanlon

Mayor Scanlon of Lawrence has named Simeon A. Woodbury, formerly his partner in the real estate and insurance business, with offices in the Bay State building, a member of the Board of License Commissioners to serve through the unexpired term of the late Benjamin F. Mitchell, whose death occurred Wednesday morning after having served less than three years of his second term.

Mr. Mitchell was first appointed to the license commission in 1905 by Alderman Cornelius F. Lynch who was then serving his second term as mayor.

He was reappointed in 1910 by William F. White, who was then mayor, and his term was not to have expired until the first Monday in June, 1915.

The new license commissioners in the second member of the board to be named by Mayor Scanlon, a privilege seldom afforded a chief executive. Last year Mayor Scanlon appointed John W. Duffy to succeed Daniel W. McCarthy, whose tenure on office expired on the first Monday of June, 1912.

As the two surviving members of the board were democrats, Mayor Scanlon, who has the exclusive power in the appointment of the license commission, was confined to one condition and that was that the new member be a republican, the law providing that the board shall be bi-partisan and that the members be chosen from the two leading parties.

The management to try a change is Football Supervisors—Tad Jones is Engaged to Bent Andover.

The Exeter athletic management has decided to try another shift in football supervisors. "Johnnie" Glaze of Dartmouth and "Gus" Zeigler of Penn, who have tried and failed to break into the winning All-American machine turned out by Coach Ladd of Cornell.

Now the Exeter athletic council has engaged "Tad" Jones to tackle the position.

Although one of the best quarterbacks the game ever produced by Yale, Jones has not shown any particular talent for teaching.

CRITICISM OF BOARD OF HEALTH

Relative to Handling of Scarlet
Fever Cases Answered by
Doctor Brunelle

There has been considerable criticism of the board of health's handling of scarlet fever cases. It is an undisputed fact that doctors diagnose the same case differently, at times, and this happened in scarlet fever cases. In part answer to the criticism is the effect that children sent out of school by the school physicians being returned to school by the board of health and that quarantine regulations were not being properly enforced, Dr. Brunelle, this morning, said:

"In regard to the quarantine laws concerning cases of suspected scarlet fever there is a great deal of misunderstanding. As a matter of fairness to all concerned the board of health has taken this position. For instance, after being vaccinated, certain children went back to attend school. The school physician, having his suspicions aroused, reports the case to the board of health, as possibly scarlet fever. The attending physician, on the other hand, who has been attending the case from day to day, reports back to the board of health that he is positive the case is not one of scarlet fever.

"In case of this kind the board of health feels that the school physician should be commended for his vigilance and that his position should meet with the utmost respect. The attending physician, however, is in better position to know what he is dealing with and the board does not feel like going over his head by placing a scarlet fever card on his patient's door.

"In all such cases the children have remained from school, and at home, the same as under quarantine, except that no card was placed on the door of the attending physician's case.

ARREST THE RECKLESS DRIVERS

If the drivers of autos and other vehicles when crossing streets or turning corners would exercise due caution as dictated by common sense, there would not be so many collisions as we have nowadays. The traffic rules now in force and bearing upon the mode of turning a corner or crossing a street are plain enough, and if followed would in most cases ensure safety; but they are seldom obeyed unless under the personal direction of police officers. There are street corners where the turn cannot be made with absolute safety except by stopping and looking both ways to see if the road is clear. How many drivers do this even at any of the so called "blind corners?" It would seem to be the imperative duty of the police to pay more attention to reckless drivers of autos and other vehicles on the public streets.

IN PROBATE COURT CASE OF W. J. DUDLEY

Contest Cases Heard by
Judge Lawton

MANY WILLS WERE ADMITTED TO PROBATE

Mrs. Lot R. Winters Petitioner For
Separate Maintenance on the Ground
of Neglect and Ill Treatment

Mrs. Lot R. Winters of this city has petitioned the court for separate support on the grounds that her husband did not supply a proper home for her, and also that he abused and maltreated her.

The case was heard by Judge Lawton in the probate court session for contested cases. In the course of her testimony Mrs. Winters said her husband did not properly support her and that often while under the influence of liquor he maltreated her. Her testimony was in part corroborated by a police officer who on one occasion was called to the house to quiet the defendant who was in an intoxicated condition.

Mr. Winters' testimony was a complete denial of the testimony of his wife and other witnesses.

The session for uncontested cases was presided over by Judge McIntire and the following cases were disposed of:

Wills presented: Amelia Elliott, Chelmsford; Phoebe W. Sanborn, Lowell; Susan R. Foster, Lowell; Arthur B. Nichols, Lowell; Edwin H. Wentworth, Lowell; Isabella L. Gilechrist, Lowell; George Thorpe, Malden; Christopher Ashworth, Chelmsford.

Administrations granted: Francis McElroy, Lowell; Frank Berard, Lowell; Frederick G. Cuff; Alfred Langlois, Westford; Ellen P. Worcester, Westford; Annie C. Curry, Lowell; Frank Carolan, alias Carolin, Lowell.

Court Adjourned

After hearing the evidence in the case of Mrs. Winters who petitioned the probate court for separate maintenance, Judge Lawton adjourned until next month. There were several other cases scheduled for today, but the Winters case was the only one heard.

CASE OF SMALLPOX

WAS FOUND IN THE WIGGINVILLE DISTRICT TODAY

Resimon De Gagne Was Removed to Hospital—Home Quarantined—First Case Since July 19

Scarlet fever had to take a back seat at the board of health office today when Dr. George E. Caisse reported a case of smallpox in the Wigginville district. Dr. E. G. Livingston, the local smallpox expert, examined the case and verified Dr. Caisse's diagnosis.

The patient, Resimon DeGagne was removed to the smallpox hospital. The case is one of discrete smallpox and while this is not the most violent form of the disease, it was stated by the doctors and Agent Bates of the board of health, that DeGagne is a pretty sick man.

There is no doubt in the minds of the doctors and board of health members but what DeGagne contracted the disease in the city of Montreal where he spent a week or two, returning to this city January 10th. He is a carpenter by trade but has not worked for more than a week. He was taken sick four days ago. He is 37 years old and has a wife and six children. The names and ages of the children are as follows: Angelina, 10 years; Helen, 8; Abelle, 6; Armand, 4; Mary Louise, 2, and Amabelle, 3 months. The house has been quarantined and according to the story obtained by the doctors and Agent Bates there has been little, if any chance for exposure outside of the immediate family. The DeGagne family live at 210 Woburn street.

William J. Dudley, a young man about 20 years of age, who has been employed as a commission salesman for Thomas A. D. Sullivan & Co., wholesale grocers in Middle street, was arrested while at work yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with larceny by Inspector Walsh of the police department. Dudley was arraigned before Judge Enright in police court this morning on a complaint containing six counts of larceny, and the defendant entered a general plea of guilty. At the request of counsel for the government the case was continued until next Tuesday morning.

Dudley had been in the employ of Mr. Sullivan for some time past and was considered a bright and trustworthy clerk. Of late it was found that boxes of canned goods, soap and groceries had been disappearing but suspicion did not rest on Dudley until it was discovered that at some of the stores where he visited the goods were being sold at the wholesale price. This led to an investigation which resulted in the arrest of the young man yesterday afternoon.

The storage quarters of the Sullivan company are closed between 12 and 1 o'clock at noon, and it is alleged that during that hour, where there would be little fear of detection, Dudley would force open the sliding doors and load an express wagon with boxes of canned goods, etc., and then sell the goods to retail dealers at cost price and the retail dealers would sell them to the trade at wholesale prices.

Although Dudley, it is alleged, has confessed to the larceny of over $100 worth of goods, the police are of the opinion that there was considerable more than that amount stolen altogether.

FOR NEW POSITIONS

Ald. Cummings Wants
2 Positions Created

When the municipal council gets together on the question of appropriations, Alderman Cummings will ask for a sufficient appropriation to cover the expense of two new positions. Mr. Cummings says that the Inspector of Buildings is badly in need of an assistant and that there should be another gas man in his department.

"The Inspector of Buildings has more than he can attend to and do the work properly," said Mr. Cummings. "I will ask the municipal council to allow me money enough for an assistant inspector of buildings and an extra gas man. This is not an extravagance, but a necessity."

42 TO BE EXAMINED

ON REQUEST OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

The following opinion by the city collector to the board of health is self-explanatory:

January 21, 1913.
Board of Health, City of Lowell.

Gentlemen: In reply to your request for an opinion upon the facts presented to the city collector, relative to the conduct of George A. Stewart, in conducting the business of the collector, and as administrator of the collector, holding himself out to the public as a master plumber, the city collector is of the opinion that the conduct as outlined by you in your communication, which is on file in your office, is a clear violation of the law.

Respectfully,
J. Joseph Hennessy,
City Collector.

THE MAYOR IS ALARMED

AT FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE CITY

Mayor O'Donnell views the present financial condition of the city with considerable alarm. He says that the city's income for the year 1913 will be considerably less than in 1912 and the disbursements will be greater. The mayor hopes that the legislature will make the rate per thousand on taxes $15 instead of $12. He does not think this would remedy matters entirely, but he feels that it would help very materially.

WILL LAY WIRES UNDERGROUND

Municipal Council Favors Installation of Conduits in Prescott and Merrimack Streets

The hearing on the matter of objecting to the re-appointment of Victor J. Belle Isle did not come before the municipal council this afternoon, much to the disappointment of a crowded gallery and door. Mr. Belle Isle was sick and unable to appear. The hearing will be held later.

Meeting Called to Order

It was 2:50 o'clock when Mayor O'Donnell called to order and all members were then present.

The first matter to come before the meeting was the petition of the N. E. T. & T. company for a permit to lay and maintain underground conduits in Prescott and Merrimack streets, the conduits and manholes to be located by the city engineer.

The order accompanying the petition was read by the mayor. The order provides that the company opening the street shall put it back in shape suitable to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Mr. Mahoney appeared for the petitioners and said that his company wanted permission to allow the Postal Telegraph company to enter, with cables, its new office in the new Sun building.

The mayor read part of a communication from Ambeden Jean, representative of the civil service commission, had a petition before the council asking that the city teamsters be placed upon the civil service list. The matter was referred to the commissioner of streets and highways.

John H. Harrington of The Sun said he was very much interested in the petition and said it came somewhat as a surprise to him.

Mr. Harrington said that the foundation of The Sun building was laid, he thought all the necessary openings for wires were made, but such, it seems, was not the case. Mr. Harrington said he was now using temporary wires and that he is opposed to aerial wires.

"I want that Postal Telegraph company to get into The Sun building as soon as possible," said Mr. Harrington, and I suppose you know why. When the assessors visit Merrimack square they will not pass The Sun building without noticing it and it is necessary to have somebody to assist in defraying the expenses. I would like to avoid digging up Prescott street, but there is no way of supplying the wires without installing aerial wires and we don't want them. I cannot get my tenants in until I get the wires and I assure you that the necessary is a pressing one. I hope you gentlemen will see your way clear to grant the petition.

On motion of Ald. Brown the order was taken from the table and Mr. Brown moved its adoption. Ald. Barrett wanted the guarantee for maintenance extended from one to three years. The city clerk was instructed to make the order read "three years" instead of "one year," and the order was then adopted.

That Furniture Bill

The mayor read a communication from Adams & Co., relative to furniture purchased several months ago by Ald. Brown for his offices in the department of streets and highways. The bill amounts to $12,193.00, and Adams & Co., want their money. The matter was set for Tuesday next.

Civil Service Teamsters

James H. Carmichael, local representative of the civil service commission, had a petition before the council asking that the city teamsters be placed upon the civil service list. The matter was referred to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Mr. Mahoney appeared for the petitioners and said that his company wanted permission to allow the Postal Telegraph company to enter, with cables, its new office in the new Sun building.

On motion of Ald. Brown the order was taken from the table and Mr. Brown moved its adoption. Ald. Cummings seconded the motion and the council adjourned at 3:25 o'clock.

Aldermen Defeat the Mayor's Appointees

BROCKTON, Jan. 21.—Before the biggest crowd that ever attended a meeting of the aldermen two of the four democrats and the two republicans of the upper board succeeded last night in defeating the appointments made by Mayor Hickey, democratic for executive officer of the board of health and for the highway commission, while the voters last fall went on record as favoring.

The action of the two democrats Whalen and Croeden in refusing to confirm the appointment of Frank W. Jackson to the board of health and Patrick P. McMahon and James P. Powers to the highway commission was ratified by democratic leaders, particularly as all three have long been leading workers in the party.

The two republicans, Aldermen J. Edwin Maybury and Dr. John S. Burleigh, were criticized by republican leaders for failing to confirm Ex-Alderman Charles R. Churchill, who was appointed to the highway commission.

Interest was the feeling that after the meeting plans were discussed for holding a mass meeting of voters in the hope that the legislature may be

HORSEWHIPPED BY NEIGHBORS

Alleged Offense Was Being Drunk at Funeral of a Relative—Was Dragged Through Streets

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Jan. 21.— Doctor Mitchell of Lake Placid was publicly horsewhipped by a number of Lake Placid residents last night because they say he appeared in a drunk condition at the funeral of a relative.

The posse found Mitchell in the street in the evening, tied a rope around him and some of them dragged him up the street while the others plied horsewhips. Following the whipping Mitchell was warned that further misconduct would bring more whippings.

No steps have been taken to identify those who inflicted the punishment.

appealed to for authority to appoint a highway commission.

The aldermen again refused to hold a joint convention with the common council for the election of city officers. Alderman Whalen and Croeden again joined with the two republicans in defeating the proposition, which, if passed, would mean the election of democrats in place of the present republican hold-overs.

On the request for a joint convention from the common council, Alderman Whalen referred to his attitude toward the democratic party and charged Alderman Shulair with fabricating stories distributed to his democratic stand.

The aldermen said he would block any attempt on the part of a few to dictate city affairs. He was called to order by Mayor Hickey, who told him to talk to the question.

As matters now stand, unless the four aldermen in control change their attitude, there will be no highway commission and no joint convention, the two democrats in the upper board who have joined with the republicans thwarting the efforts of the democratic majority to elect democrats to city office.

Alderman Maybury presented an order for a loan of $26,000 for a new central police station, the order being referred to the finance committee. On an order presented by Alderman Whalen the trustees of all public buildings were placed in control of the public property committee.

So intense was the feeling that after the meeting plans were discussed for holding a mass meeting of voters in the hope that the legislature may be given a chance to consider the question.

INCREASE IN PARCEL POST SYSTEM

Service is Meeting With Remarkable Success in the City—Civil Service Examinations

There still perseveres a very gradual, but nevertheless certain increase in the parcel post business in this city, so an authority at the local post office told a Sun reporter this morning in an interview.

It was a very difficult matter for the officials to determine without keeping records of the matter, the exact amount of parcel post increase over the ordinary fourth class mail matter, for the new system of delivery was begun at a time when there was a great rush and increase in the mails throughout the country. The amount of mail matter at the recent holiday season was the largest ever known at the Lowell post office, according to the statements of the authorities there. Usually at this time there is a large amount of fourth class mail matter sent through the post, and of course after the first day of January 1913, this became parcel post matter. Thus it was not easy to determine how much of this was new business arising from the introduction of the parcel post into the United States post offices and how much was merely the ordinary fourth class mail matter with new post stamps, according to the new law.

During the first two weeks of the actualization of the much discussed parcel post law, the postmasters throughout the country received orders to keep an accurate record of the number and weights of all packages sent through the parcel post, so that the authorities at the postal headquarters there might have a knowledge of how the system was operating and of its popularity and reception by the people. This demand was complied with at the expense of considerable extra labor on the part of the clerks and others in the employ of the post office. This is no longer required and at present no record is being taken of the amount of parcel post matter dispatched and delivered. Consequently one of the postal authorities here when asked for statistics and figures in the matter replied that such would be practically impossible under the circumstances. The parcel post is not there are the larger articles which are

Youngsters With Pimples.

By Dr. Crane

A mother asks me how she shall remove pimples and blemishes that disfigure her child's face. My answer is very simple and direct, because all such blemishes are the result of poisons in the system that should be carried off in the secretions, but are not.

When anyone finds the skin becoming tallow, dry, scaly, or when blackheads, pimples or blotches appear, they should at once take my Dr. Crane's Elixir for stomach and bowels. This is a most remarkable remedy. It is wholly vegetable, mild and pleasant, but very effective.

It corrects a wrong condition of stomach and bowels, and sets these important organs in healthy activity, so that waste and poison are driven from the system. No mother need feel anxiety about facial blemishes on her child if she will give my pleasant remedy a chance to remove the cause back of them. And I urge anyone, young or old, who is now enduring this embarrassment, to follow the same course. It will certainly correct the evil.

I recommend, too, that they use Parker's 2-30-2 Cold Cream on face and neck every night. In this way they will make the skin soft and beautiful, as well as free of disfigurement.

In excess of the maximum weight of the parcel post scale and, indeed, most of the matter which the express companies carry is heavier than the postal matter. Thus it is that up to this time there has been noticed no damaging effect of the parcel post on the business of the express companies.

SURVIVORS MAKE PORT

When Every Noise Gets
"On Your Nerves"

When you have so far lost control of your nerves that you "fly to pieces" over the least little noise or excitement, it is high time to give your nerves a rest and to build up your blood. You are keeping up on your nerves alone. Your pale, yellow complexion shows that your blood is thin and watery. Your whole system is weak and run down. The drawn look, the sunken eyes, the deepening lines about the mouth and forehead, the loss in weight, are plain signs that the nerves and body are being poorly nourished. Your nervous energy and will power are all that is standing between you and a complete nervous breakdown.

"Don't put off taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills any longer. You may be nearer a collapse than you think. Few people know their endurance. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up, purify and put your blood in shape to properly nourish your exhausted, over-strained nervous system. They contain no opiums or harmful drugs. They give strength, not stimulation.

Men on Future Tell of Suffering

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 21.—The five survivors of the Boston schooner Future, who were rescued 60 miles off Cape Hatteras on Jan. 2, when they had given themselves up for lost, were landed here yesterday from the steamer Assumption. They were H. Perry of Malden, Mass., and John Sales, Manuel R. Silver, Rufus Santos and Taro D. Riques, all of Boston.

They told a terrible story of their privations. Sudden gales sprang up while they were on their voyage, and Jan. 2 a great wave washed Captain A. C. Larkin and the mate overboard. The hold was flooded, and the ship was left a helpless hulk, at the mercy of the sea.

Engineer Perry, the cook, R. K. Schafner and the four other men then lashed themselves in the mizzen chains. The decks were awash, and the men were without provisions with the exception of five raw potatoes. The cook soon afterward died from exposure.

The Future was so low in the water that she was invisible to the vessels which passed by, but which the shipwrecked men could see in the distance, until the second officer of the Assumption, which came very near to them, sighted the hulk in the trough of the sea.

The four young people were skating shortly after 5 o'clock, with Miss Peletier and McGrath, who was 23 years old. In the lead. They skated onto a thin spot, and went through. Before Miss McGrath and Harvey realized what had happened they also were foundering in the water.

Harvey carried Miss McGrath ashore and struggled to rescue the other two young people, but was unsuccessful. Last Friday two brothers were drowned in the same pond.

United States Minister at Lisbon Quells Fears of American Board Concerning Angola

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions yesterday received a cable from United States Minister Cyrus E. Woods at Lisbon concerning the situation in Angola, Portuguese West Africa, where cables advise have reported many atrocities by natives.

Mr. Woods said that the Portuguese government has no knowledge of an insurrection in West Africa and doubts its existence, but that it has telegraphed the governor of that province to protect American missionaries in the event of trouble.

The mission of the American board in the interior of Africa is an important one, embracing six stations, with 28 American missionaries.

ATTACKS DR. ELLIOT'S VIEWS

Alleged Unbelief in Hell Makes Him Another Ingraham, Declares Rev. L. T. Townsend

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Discussing Dr. Charles W. Elliot's alleged declaration of his disbelief in hell, Rev. Luther T. Townsend of Brookline, speaking yesterday before the Unitarian Alliance in Tremont Temple, contended that it made by Elliot another Col. Robert Ingraham.

But for a lurking feeling that there is a day of reckoning coming and that hell is really imminent, Rev. Townsend said that every person in the universe would commit suicide.

He had been discussing at some length Col. Ingraham's theories on religion, when he said: "Any man who does not believe in hell is therefore, a return of Robert Ingraham."

TAFT'S TASTE IN MUSIC

Criticized at Meeting...

Mrs. Crane Presided

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—President Taft's taste in music was criticized and the popularity of the "turkey trot," the "chicken slip" and other modern dances was condemned at a meeting over which Mrs. William Murray Crane, wife of the senator from Massachusetts, presided and today capital society is suffering from shock.

The arraignment of "rhythms" in the White House and the dances in question at society's functions was made at a meeting last night of the Monday Evening Club, a Y. M. C. A. organization. Louis Ottensberg, a lawyer and leader in the club, was the critic of the president.

"I have heard," he said, "that one of the reasons why President-elect Wilson requested the abandonment of the inaugural ball was because of the New Year's program played at the White House by the Marine band. I looked up the program and found that out of 28 numbers the majority were ragtime."

Mrs. Charles H. Israel, chairman of the committee on amusements for working girls of New York, laid at the door of society the blame for the questionable dances indulged in on the floors of public halls.

"What society lacks is self control," she said. "Society as a rule does not dance these dances in an indecent way but what society does not realize is that the little girl of the dance hall reads in the papers that Mrs. Blank danced the 'chicken slip' at her great hall and does not know that it is not the same 'chicken slip' she dances in her dance hall. Society gives the seal of approval to these dances."

Other speakers condemned the modern dances.

OLD LINE UNNECESSARY

President Bancroft Notes This Reply
Concerning Reestablishment of Forest Hills Surface Line

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Pres. William A. Bancroft of the Boston Elevated Railway company yesterday sent a letter to Mayor Fitzgerald with reference to the reestablishment of the Forest Hills surface line to the North station, an order for which was recently passed by the city council.

Pres. Bancroft says that as the company runs rapid transit service from Forest Hills to the North station, with a system of transfers from surface cars, the reestablishment of the old line is unnecessary.

PLEASURE CAR EXHIBIT A SUCCESS MOTOR SPEEDWAY RACES

N. Y. Show Makes New Record for Retail Sales—Other Automobile News

The pleasure vehicle show which closed in New York Saturday night was a success in every particular, according to the reports of local automobile dealers and salesmen who were in the metropolis during the week. The display of cars was complete and up-to-date, the show of accessories was excellent, the display was greater than ever, while the attendance was not below that of previous years.

In the matter of actual sales at retail, the consensus of opinion among the manufacturers and exhibitors was that the New York show has at last jumped into a class which it has heretofore been without in the retail end.

It has always been conceded that the New York and Chicago shows were national shows in name and purpose, and that the bulk of business accomplished here was that between the dealer and the maker, and that but few retail sales were made. This year, however, the conditions were not so pronounced, the individual purchaser coming stronger to the front than ever.

The car, which is a creation of one of the leading Amesbury carriage factories, is mounted upon a 1913 Model 49 Buick chassis which, it will be remembered, has a long wheel base and low centre of gravity, so that there is ample room within the coupe for four passengers without giving the complete car an overloaded appearance.

The body is finished in a very pleasant shade of grey, with a four-inch heading of red around the centre, and the upholstery is in a very rich maroon broadcloth.

Several unique features are embodied in the car, among them being the arrangement of the driver's seat which places him several inches in advance of the other two persons sitting on the cross seat. By this arrangement the person in the drop seat is not crowded in any way, there being ample room for all.

The car is, of course, electrically lighted throughout, current being provided by dynamo system which, when not needed for the several electric lights, is charging the storage battery which, in turn, is used when the engine is idle.

Jackson Majestic Delivered

The Jackson Majestic recently purchased by Adolphe Lamontagne, the well known furniture dealer, through the agency of the Lowell Motor Mart in Merrimack street, has arrived in this city, it being the first of the 1913 Jacksons to be seen here. It is a four cylinder engine and develops 45 horse power. The body of the car is maroon while the running gear is dark blue.

Ford Right or Left-Hand Drive

With the right or left-hand drive will the most popular on high-grade motor cars? This is a question frequently asked in the past, and it is possible for me to give an unprejudiced opinion, for we have both styles to offer, said a well known automobile dealer the other day. The first rule is to embody only those features which are best, safest and most convenient; second, those that meet the public demand.

The principal advantages of left drive are as follows:

One—The driver and the passengers on the front seat can step into the car directly from the curb, which is an advantage, especially in bad weather and on a busy thoroughfare.

The front seat occupants do not have to step into the street at all and so do not wet their feet, or run the danger of being struck by passing traffic.

Two—Most collisions between automobiles occur when the driver is proceeding on the right side of the street and attempts to turn off to the left, when he is overtaken and struck by some other vehicle which has been following him and is attempting to pass to his left. The traffic laws require a vehicle overtaking another to pass to the left, but if the driver of the vehicle that is being overtaken is sitting on the right side, he is unable to signal out of the left side of his car; whereas, from the left seat he can readily extend his hand and thereby warn following vehicles of his intention to make the most dangerous of all turns.

Three—In touring on country roads the left drive has the considerable advantage that the driver or chauffeur passing a vehicle going in the opposite direction, is closer to the vehicle he is passing, and is therefore able to gauge more exactly a safe distance to allow between the two vehicles.

Handsome Humber Sedan

One of the prettiest cars that has been seen in Lowell this year is the Rambler Sedan which will be delivered to Mrs. Alice V. Dillon, a Grande Holmes sister, has a pleasing part, and she is as charming as ever. Some of the cleverest work in the place is done by Isaac Dillon, as Holmes' brother Gerald, a man of the world, Miss Alice, the society girl, and Mrs. Alice, as Miss Clementina, the maiden lady who is so concerned about Alice's welfare, does some remarkably genuine work.

Mr. Smith and Miss Jackson, in the leading parts, are, as usual, exceptionally good, and display considerable dramatic ability. Miss Jackson is well suited to the part of Alice, while Mrs. Alice, V. Dillon, is a Grande Holmes sister, has a pleasing part, and she is as charming as ever. Some of the cleverest work in the place is done by Isaac Dillon, as Holmes' brother Gerald, a man of the world, Miss Alice, the society girl, and Mrs. Alice, as Miss Clementina, the maiden lady who is so concerned about Alice's welfare, does some remarkably genuine work.

Mr. Weston is again to be congratulated on his successful efforts to please Lowell audiences, and there should be good audiences at the remaining performances of "A Bachelor's Romance."

Hit With Pickax Handle

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 21.—Charles Barber of this city, employed by John Swaine, a blacksmith of Taylor street, was assaulted yesterday while at work, having been struck on the back of the head with the handle of a pickax. The police are looking for C. Blagax, a blacksmith's helper, who is charged with striking the blow.

Barber was removed to the Collins Emergency hospital and, after being attended by the doctors, he was able to leave for his home.

THE CRAFT OF THE TURK

An American correspondent writing from Constantinople states that during the armistice, by the terms of which both parties in the Balkan war were to rest upon their arms and make no effort to strengthen their positions, there has been feverish activity within the Turkish lines. In open violation of the truce, No less than 10 powerful field guns of French manufacture—the same arm that the allies have been using so effectively—have been received from some mysterious source, not together in the Turkish arsenals, and mounted on the lines outside the city. Moreover, thousands of troops have come in from Turkey in Asia, and have replaced the men in the trenches and forts who have already met with death at the hands of the allies.

The Turks, with oriental craft, apparently believe that if they can win at least one decisive battle outside of Constantinople, it will be possible to obtain a modification of the terms of peace. They seem to entirely ignore the other alternative, and if they are beaten again when hostilities are renewed, their boundary may be pushed even into Asia Minor.

The allies feared, for a time, that the European powers not concerned in the war, would attempt to rob them of the fruits of their victory, but the developments of the past week have shown that Europe is willing to allow the Bulgars, the Servians, the Greeks and the Montenegrins to claim the territory that they have conquered. If the war is resumed the position of the allies, so far as it relates to other powers, will be stronger than before, and the world will probably witness a mild-winter campaign or unrelenting aggression and frightful loss of life. In the end there can be but one result. Turkey will be crushed and treated as a subjugated nation. The Mohammedan world cannot go to her relief because in the centuries-old contest between the cross and the crescent the Christian nations long ago obtained the upper hand. The holy war has already been preached anew in Africa, but it finds Italian, French and English regiments blocking the path to Europe. Fatalism stands dumb before progress, but in the end will be swept out of the way. So does the civilization of the world march on.

HARD TO STAMPEDE

When Woodrow Wilson was running for the presidency his opponents made all the capital possible out of the fact that he had been a school master. Of course one travels quite a distance from the position of school master to that of the head of a great university and later the governorship of the state, but the politicians and the cartoonists passed this fact over lightly. Nevertheless, there are excellent qualities developed in a successful school master, and especially one who becomes a successful university president, not the least of which is an ability to keep one's counsel at all times.

The governor of Pennsylvania wants the legislature to revoke the charter of Coatesville because it failed to arrest and convict any of the men who took part in the burning of a negro last year. This action might have its effect; but why did not the governor turn the case over to his state police for investigation and prosecution?

Governor-General William C. Forbes returns to his post in the Philippines after an absence of more than 10 months. That is a long time to be away from such important duties, and he ought to make up for it by double service now.

Turkey lives faithfully up to the adage "Always put off until tomorrow what you can avoid today."

New England is to be recommended as a winter resort to those Californians who have no bollers in their cellars.

The defeated candidates of Lowell and Oyster Bay are still in harmony.

This Quickly Cleanses Both Hair and Scalp

"A harmless and entirely satisfactory shampoo can be enjoyed at little expense," says Miss Mary Martyn in the Los Angeles Sun. "If you get an original package of camphor from your druggist and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This is enough mixture for a thorough cleansing of both hair and scalp."

The camphor mixture makes a wealth of rich, white lather that dissolves every atom of dust, dandruff and excess oil. Rinsing leaves the hair and scalp unusually clean, and after a camphor shampoo the hair dries quickly and evenly, taking on such a rich gloss and softness, so that doing it up is a genuine pleasure. Occasional shampooing with camphor keeps the scalp clean and pliant and induces a heavy growth of beautiful, lustrous hair.

SKILLED HELP WANTED

F. G. R. Gordon, writing in the Textile Manufacturers' Journal, says that our national laws, passed originally to protect the skilled labor in this country, have proven a failure in that while they serve to keep out the trained weavers and other mill workers of the British Isles, they do not shut out the unskilled labor of other countries, now filling the textile mills of the east.

March 4th has always been an important day in this country on account of the presidential inauguration, but this year March 4th is to be a great day. That's when the suffragettes are going to have their big parade in Washington. We'd like to see it, especially the political exercises.

The textile industry of the country has now reached a point where it gives employment to a round million of people. It pays in wages and salaries half a billion annually and produces one and three billion dollars worth of manufactured goods. There is still a surplus of skilled labor in the British Isles, but if a manufacturer should seek to bring it over he would be liable to prosecution by the government. Indeed, an English weaver was recently deported because he had written to his brother in Providence asking him to secure him a job in one of the cotton mills. On the same ship, or at any rate, entering the ports of the country on that day, were hundreds of unskilled men and women intending to seek work in the factories at any wage that could be obtained.

The point made by Mr. Gordon is that the textile industry would be better off if the mills could invite skilled help to come over, since it is impossible now to produce skilled help here fast enough to meet the demand. Yet is not the nearer solution to be found in finding some means outside of the mills, through the evening classes of the textile schools or otherwise, to turn a part of this untrained help into skilled operatives, capable of doing satisfactory work and earning better wages? Our textile school was intended to answer this very need but somehow it is not succeeding to the extent that most people expected.

Miss Gould and Mr. Shepard at Lyndhurst

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Miss Helen Gould and Philip Shepard, who will marry tomorrow, rehearsed the wedding in the drawing room of Lyndhurst, the home of the bride, today.

The Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of the Irvington Presbyterian church, who will perform the ceremony, prompted them in their replies, and instructed the attendants in the roles which they will play.

These included Louis J. Shepard, brother of the bridegroom-to-be, as best man, and Miss Gould's little nieces, Helen and Dorothy, daughters of Frank J. Gould, who will be flower girls. The two children will be the bride's only attendants. The wedding party reached here this afternoon in an automobile from Miss Gould's New York home.

A stream of messengers bearing wedding presents from every part of the country poured through the grounds of Miss Gould's estate today.

Gifts came from wealthy friends of the bride-elect, from friends on the Bowery and the East Side, for whom she has done much in the past; from the army, the navy, railroad organizations and individuals the world over. Among the wedding presents are a handsome rope of pearls presented to the bride by her brother, George J. Gould, a corsage ornament of diamonds and pearls from Frank J. Gould, a set of tapestries from Edwin Gould. Howard Gould, it is said, has presented his sister with a rare art treasure, which he purchased recently in Paris.

The wedding guests have been restricted to members of both families and immediate friends of the bride and bridegroom. Not more than 75, it is announced, will witness the ceremony. The ceremony will take place at 12:30 o'clock.

MRS. WILSON TO ATTEND

Public Reception at the White House

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—President-elect Wilson declared today that if a public reception were to be held at the capitol as a substitute for the inaugural ball Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Wilson would attend. The governor said the impression that the members of his family would not be present probably had arisen from his letter to William C. Eustis, the inauguration chairman.

"Perhaps I did not make it clear in my letter," said Mr. Wilson today, "but I meant simply that the ladies should not be expected to stand in line and shake hands."

The governor said that while he himself did not fear the strain of the handshaking ordeal, he thought his family would be excused if they did not participate.

The governor took occasion to deny published reports that he and Mrs. Wilson had favored the abandonment of the inaugural ball because of the possibility that the dancers might indulge in the "turkey trot" or the "bunny hug" or similar dances. He said he had opposed the idea of an inaugural ball chiefly of the indirect expense to the government.

ESCAPING GAS IGNITED

In Cobbler Shop---And Firemen Were Called

A gas pipe was accidentally broken in the little shoe repairing shop at the corner of Market and Palmer streets, by workmen who are relaying the flooring about 10:30 o'clock this morning and the escaping gas became ignited. The workmen tried to extinguish the fire by wrapping pieces of cloth around the pipe but the flames increased in proportion and were working their way up through the partitions. Word was sent to the central fire station and Fireman John O'Neill, with the aid of a chemical extinguisher, soon put an end to the fire.

THE POLICE AUTO PATROL

The police auto patrol was pressed into service again this morning when it returned from the repair shop, where it underwent a general overhauling. The machine had been in constant use for two years until last November, when it was sent to the repair shop to have the engine overhauled and the body remodeled and painted.

Before the closing of the meeting held by the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association the men all had a chance to shake hands with Mr. Tuttle, who had a smile and encouraging word as well as a hearty handshake for each one.

The greater part of Mr. Tuttle's speech was a history of the railroads from the time the first locomotive was used in Darlington, Eng., to the establishment of the Boston &amp; Lowell.

Inaugural Ball Officially Abandoned

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Cipriano Castro's appeal to enter the United States merely as a visitor was discussed today at the cabinet meeting.

Secretary Nagel took to the White House the complete record in the case including the decision of the special board of inquiry at New York ordering deportation and the bill of exceptions to that finding received from Castro's attorneys today. The attorneys controvert the decision of the board that the refusal of the former Venezuelan president to answer certain questions regarding the assassination of General Parada constituted an admission of knowledge of a crime involving moral turpitude. They declare that Castro has not been convicted of nor does he admit any such offense which would deny him admission to the United States.

Decrease in Number of Fires.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—With the grand jury, the district attorney and the fire commissioners at the heads of the firemen and others comprising New York's firemen trust, the number of incendiary fires kindled in the city has fallen from 81 during the week of Jan. 12-18, 1912 to 37 during the corresponding week this year, according to figures made public by the fire commissioner today. The total number of fires in the city shows a still more marked decrease from 326 during this week last year to 147 in 1912.

When the grand jury required its report today it was expected that more indictments against alleged members of the trust would be handed down.

"Iaz the painter" the convicted fireman whose confession has led to most of the disclosures thus far continued before the grand jury what he has been telling it for several days.

Inaugural Ball Officially Abandoned

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—President-elect Wilson's inaugural ball was officially abandoned today when the house committee providing for the ceremony on March 4 struck it out of the congressional resolution which covers the program.

TURKS EXPECTED TO YIELD

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 21.—Increasing optimism is displayed in telegrams received here from Constantinople regarding the possibility of the recognition of the advice of the powers by the Turkish government. It is regarded here as practically certain that peace will be concluded between the Balkan allies and Turkey without a resumption of hostilities.

Even should the Ottoman government's reply be not altogether satisfactory it is thought that the European powers, having taken hold of the situation, will not allow the belligerents to resume warlike operations.

THREE LOWELL GREEKS KILLED AND NEARLY A SCORE WOUNDED IN BATTLE AT JANINA

THE LOCAL MEMBERS OF THE HOLY GREEK REGIMENT

According to letters received in this city, the members of the Greek Holy Regiment, who left Lowell a few months ago to take part in the Balkan-Turkish war, are suffering intensely, and in a recent battle three local men were killed, while nearly a score were badly wounded, some of whom it is believed will not recover from their injuries.

When the first call to arms reached this city, the members of the Holy Regiment packed their things and sailed for Greece, headed by their captain, Costas Constantakis. Upon arriving in Greece they were immediately sent to the front, but until recently they did not meet with any mishap. However, luck was not to favor them all the time, and a short time ago they took part in a battle near Janina, and in the conflict they lost three of their members. Lt. John Perdikis, Apostolos Pappavassiliou and Vasilios Gouliaris.

The letter claims that the Turks exploded mines in the ground, blowing the men to pieces, while long pieces of pointed wire were sticking out of the ground. There were also pits into which the men fell when the mines exploded, and at the bottom were also buried wires. Out of the 245 men in the entire regiment which consisted of

"I was troubled with acne (or pimples) for three years. My face was broken out with pimples, and would at times get like raw meat. I tried all sorts of salves and soaps. I received samples of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and they helped me very much. After using them I bought the regular size of each, and my face is now perfectly clear and smooth. My friends are asking me what I used, and I shall be glad to recommend Resinol."
